Larry Fredericks Day

"And it's kick-off time..." The voice that has been heard through the times, soaring through the Concordia stadium and gymnasium will no longer be heard. Larry Fredericks will be retiring at the end of the football season.

In commemoration of his service, October 27 will be Larry Fredericks day at Concordia. It will be the last regular season football game where Concordia will face the Bishop's University Gaiters.

Fredericks has been a pa announcer for 48 years. He spent 33 years announcing at McGill and 15 years announcing at Concordia. His announcing career began as a hobby when he was a student at McGill and he announced the football games. Upon graduation, Fredericks continued working for McGill and soon after began to do Concordia's football and basketball games.

In 1985, Fredericks was asked by McGill to choose one or the other university. He chose Concordia. Living in Cote St. Luc, Concordia was closer and at Concordia he could announce both the basketball and the football games. Since that date, Fredericks never had to be reminded that there was a game, he just showed up ready to go.

A bursary for a student athlete will also be issued in his name. An endowment fund will be set up and cheques should be made out to Concordia Athletics c/o Harry Zarins.

Fredericks will not be without things to do. He will continue with his column at the Suburban and with his work with the Montreal Canadiens. Fredericks says that "all things come to an end" but that voice will never be far away, he will be in the stands watching the Stingers strut their stuff and as he says, "I'll always be a fan."

Shaughnessy Cup Victory

Concordia rapped up the McGill-Concordia series with its second win over the Redmen for a 31-28 Shaughnessy cup victory. The win puts Concordia in a solid second place finish with a 5-2 standing, trailing Laval by one game.

Concordia will be playing Bishop's next weekend and a win that game combined with a McGill victory over Laval could put Concordia into first place.

Concordia wrestling tournament

This up-coming Sunday, 150 wrestlers will gather at Concordia for the first Canadian wrestling tournament of the season. The preliminary matches will be held at the Loyola High School gymnasium and in the Concordia gymnasium at 7200 Sherbrooke St. W. The tournament will begin at 8:30 a.m. and the finals will be held at 4 p.m. in the Concordia gym.

Concordia athletes to keep an eye on will be returning player Martine Dugrenier (68 kilos), who was fifth at nationals and rookies Tony Ronci (65 kilos) and Martin Pitt-Bradley (90 kilos).

Concordia's rugby teams will be heading into post-season games this weekend. The women's rugby team will face the McGill Martlets in the QSSF finals and the men's team will play the Bishop's Gaiters in the QSSF semi-finals.

The women's team came off their semi-finals last weekend with a 73-0 defeat of the Bishop's Gaiters. Leading the way into the finals will be captain, Sommer Christie. Christie has amassed 58 points this season. In the regular season Concordia had a 6-2 record. In their two encounters with McGill, the Stingers lost both games 73-7 and 22-5.

The men's rugby team has a long history with the Bishop's Gaiters. The two teams have met in the QSSF finals in the last two, where Concordia defeated Bishop's both times. This year Concordia has won both Bishop games 34-13 and 15-11. Head coach Gerry Clayton promises a tight game.

Concordia Athletes of the Week

Lynda Domazet of the women's rugby team and Jon Kronemeyer of the football team have been named Concordia Stinger athletes of the week for the period ending Oct. 21.

Domazet, a fourth-year flanker, scored six tries in two games over the week. She scored 2 tries in a 40-0 win over the Ottawa Gee-Gees and four tries in a 73-0 defeat of the Bishop's Gaiters. In the Bishop's game one try was on a kick-off return and another was on a 60 yard run. A native of Montreal, Domazet is studying in the finance program.

Kronemeyer led the Stingers to a 31-28 Shaughnessy cup victory over the McGill Redmen. The 22 year-old quarterback completed 24 of 33 passes with two interceptions for 339 yards and three touchdowns. Kronemeyer, a native of Niagara Falls, Ont., is in the applied human sciences program at Concordia. Kronemeyer was also named QIFC offensive player of the week.
